KNOW ALL PERSONS BY THESE PRESENTS:

WHEREAS, the Cornerstone Place Homeowners Association, Inc. ("Association") is charged with administering and enforcing those certain covenants, conditions and restrictions contained in the recorded Declarations for the various sections of the community (referred to collectively as "Declarations"); and

WHEREAS, chapter 202 of the Texas Property Code was amended effective June 17, 2011, to add Section 202.018 ("Section 202.018") thereto dealing with the regulation of display of certain religious items; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the Association ("Board") has determined that in connection with maintaining the aesthetics and architectural harmony of the community, and to provide clear and definitive guidance regarding the display of certain religious items therein, it is appropriate for the Association to adopt guidelines regarding the display of certain religious items within the subdivision.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Board has duly adopted the following Guidelines for Display of Certain Religious Items.

1. A property owner or resident may display or attach one or more religious items to each or any entry to their dwelling. Such item(s) may include anything related to any faith that is motivated by the resident's sincere religious belief or tradition.
2. Individually or in combination with each other, the items at any entry may not exceed 25 square inches in total size.
3. The item(s) may only be displayed on or attached to the entry door or frame and may not extend beyond the outside edge of the door frame.
4. To the extent allowed by the Texas state constitution and the United States constitution, any such displayed or affixed religious item(s) may not:
 - a. threaten public health or safety; or
 - b. violate any law; or
 - c. contain language, graphics or any display that is patently offensive to a passerby.
5. Approval from the Architectural Control committee is not required for displaying religious item(s) in compliance with these guidelines.
6. As provided by Section 202.018, the Association may remove any religious item(s) displayed in violation of these guidelines.
